ARCHITECTURE OF EXCELLENCE™

A two-phase engagement: the Executive Leadership 360° Assessment, followed by three months of 1:1 Private Consulting built on its findings. Both are grounded in the Architecture of Excellence™ framework.

PHASE I EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP 360° ASSESSMENT — 4–6 WEEKS

01

Initial Meeting

Establishes the process, the objectives, and the stakeholders to be interviewed.

02

Stakeholder Interviews

Confidential interviews with 8–10 employees or other stakeholders, approximately one hour each.

03

Analysis Through the AOE Framework

Findings are examined through the seven AOE pillars, which serve as the leadership competencies:

TRUTH	CONNECTION	BEING	VISION	MEANING	CREATION	EXCELLENCE

04

Written Report

Key strengths, developmental opportunities, and recommendations, organized by AOE competency. Yours to keep.

05

Review Meeting

A private one-hour meeting to review the outcomes and establish priorities.

PHASE II 1:1 PRIVATE CONSULTING — INITIAL THREE MONTHS

06

Assessment-Informed Strategy

The assessment findings shape a developmental strategy tailored to the individual.

07

Individualized Consulting

Up to eight hours per month integrating psychological insight, executive coaching, strategy, and skill-building.

08

Integration Report

A comprehensive written report synthesizing key insights, progress, and recommendations for continued growth.

- Ongoing individualized consulting, strategy, and skill-building
- A comprehensive written integration report at the conclusion of the engagement or another mutually agreed milestone

The eight-hour monthly allocation may be distributed across sessions according to the client's needs and mutual scheduling arrangements.

CONTINUED ENGAGEMENT

$5,000 / month

Following the initial three-month consulting engagement, clients may elect to continue on a month-to-month basis, subject to mutual agreement. Continuation is optional and allows for sustained developmental work without requiring a further three-month commitment.

PROFESSIONAL SCOPE & CONFIDENTIALITY

The Executive Leadership 360° Assessment and 1:1 Private Consulting are nonclinical leadership development and consulting services. Although informed by Dr. Schulhofer's training and professional experience as a licensed psychologist, they do not constitute psychotherapy, psychoanalysis, psychological diagnosis, mental health treatment, or crisis services. The consulting relationship does not establish a psychologist-patient relationship.

Stakeholder feedback is treated confidentially and synthesized to reduce individual identifiability. Complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed. The intended recipients and permitted uses of assessment findings are established before the engagement begins.

The assessment is intended for professional development and is not designed to serve as a standalone basis for high-stakes employment decisions.
